Milwaukee Private Wealth Management Welcomes Research Associate

MILWAUKEE, WI – Milwaukee Private Wealth Management, Inc. announces the addition of Nicholas Peters as Investment Research Associate. Peters, a native of Mellen, WI , recently completed his Masters of Finance at Vanderbilt University Owen Graduate School of Management, and holds a B.A. in economics from the University of Wisconsin – Madison. He has served in the US Marine Corps Reserve since 2002, completing two tours of duty in Iraq and rising to the level of Staff Sergeant. Peters was awarded the Navy and Marine Corps Achievement Medal in recognition of his accomplishments and commitment.

Jeff Geygan, President and Senior Portfolio Manager, said, “We are pleased to have Nick on our research team. He is extremely disciplined in his company analysis and brings a clear understanding of the value oriented investment philosophy. We think he will add a great deal to our investment process. ”

Milwaukee Private Wealth Management, Inc. is a disciplined value-oriented investment advisory firm registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). It services clients from across the country, offering investment portfolio management and an array of financial services.
